Litchford & Christopher shareholders take top slots in 'Antitrust' category for Chambers USA rankings

Orlando, Fla., July 10, 2007 – Litchford & Christopher Professional Association is pleased to announce that two of its shareholders, Hal Litchford and Keith Rounsaville, have been recognized as the top two attorneys in the “Antitrust” category in Florida by Chambers USA. Rounsaville, who ranked number one, and Litchford, number two, make up the firm’s antitrust litigation practice group.

Chambers USA noted of Litchford that he is, “one of Central Florida’s finest antitrust lawyers and has a broad practice... [combining] the sophistication and scholarly approach of an institutional firm litigator with the flexibility and fierce independence of a lawyer from a smaller firm.” Of Rounsaville, Chambers USA says, “[He is] commended by clients for distilling complicated concepts into practical, useable advice... by all accounts, a very sage counselor.”

Litchford, one of the firm’s original shareholders, practices primarily in the areas of litigation, trial and appellate law. He is an “AV-rated” attorney who has won numerous recognitions from his peers over his 29-year, private practice career. Litchford earned his undergraduate degree at Vanderbilt University and his juris doctorate from the University of Virginia.

Rounsaville is a new partner to Litchford & Christopher’s litigation department, serving clients in the areas of antitrust and trade regulation. With Rounsaville’s addition to the firm, Litchford & Christopher has increased its capacity to manage additional antitrust matters. He also serves as Chair of the Antitrust Certification Committee of The Florida Bar. Rounsaville is a graduate of Yale University and the Columbia University School of Law.

Both Litchford and Rounsaville are Board Certified in Antitrust and Trade Regulation.

Chambers USA ranks firm and attorneys considered leaders in their fields. Published by Chambers and Partners, results are obtained through a series of objective, independent surveys of lawyers and their clients across the United States. The qualities on which rankings are assessed include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, diligence, commitment and other qualities most valued by clients.

Litchford & Christopher is a commercial litigation firm serving clients with complex legal matters. The firm, established in 1985, is an “AV-rated” firm with clients of varying sizes – from small, local businesses to national, Fortune 500 corporations – and in multiple industries.
