Orlando, Fla., June 13, 2007 – Litchford & Christopher Professional Association is pleased to announce that Christine Ho, one of its associates, has been elected to the executive board of directors of the Asian American Chamber of Commerce. Ho will serve as secretary of the organization for the upcoming year.

“We are proud to support Christine’s efforts in better serving our local business community,” says Don Christopher, the firm’s President and one of its founding shareholders. “Her exemplary leadership and talent as an attorney are the foundational qualities that we seek from our associates.”

Ho focuses her work at Litchford& Christopher in the firm’s commercial litigation practice, with emphasis on probate litigation and disputes involving corporate control. She earned both her undergraduate and law degrees from the College of William and Mary where she served on its Law Review and was co-president of the Asian Law Student Association. She is currently a member of both The Florida Bar and the Orange County Bar Association.

Litchford & Christopher is a commercial litigation firm serving clients with complex legal matters. The firm, established in 1985, is an “AV-rated” firm with clients of varying sizes - from small, local businesses to national, Fortune 500 corporations - and in multiple industries.
