

[L&C Provided Press Release]

Orlando, Fla., January 8, 2008 – Litchford & Christopher Professional Association is pleased to announce that Christine Ho, one of its associates, has been reelected to the Board of Directors of the Asian American Chamber of Commerce in Central Florida. Ho will serve on the Asian Chamber's Board of Directors for the second year in a row. The Asian Chamber's primary goal is to provide leadership and support for the economic development of the Asian American business community in Central Florida. "My work on the Asian Chamber has been very rewarding, and I am grateful for another opportunity to continue my service," says Ho.

Ho focuses her work at Litchford & Christopher in the firm's commercial litigation practice, with emphasis on probate litigation and disputes involving corporate control. She earned both her undergraduate and law degrees from the College of William and Mary where she served on its Law Review and was co-president of the Asian Law Student Association. She is currently a member of American Bar Association and the Orange County Bar Association.

Litchford & Christopher is a commercial litigation firm serving clients with complex legal matters. The firm, established in 1985, is an "AV-rated" firm with clients of varying sizes - from small, local businesses to national, Fortune 500 corporations - and in multiple industries.
