Two Litchford & Christopher Attorneys Honored Statewide as Top Lawyers

Orlando, Fla., June 18, 2007 – Litchford & Christopher Professional Association is pleased to announce that two of its shareholders, Hal Litchford and Keith Rounsaville, have been honored as Florida Super Lawyers for 2007 for the second year in a row.

Litchford, one of the firm's original shareholders, practices primarily in the areas of litigation, trial and appellate law. He is an "AV-rated" attorney who has won numerous recognitions from his peers over his 29-year, private practice career. Litchford earned his undergraduate degree at Vanderbilt University and his juris doctorate from the University of Virginia.

Rounsaville is a new partner to Litchford & Christopher's litigation department, serving clients in the areas of antitrust and trade regulation. With Rounsaville's addition to the firm, Litchford & Christopher has increased its capacity to manage additional antitrust matters. Rounsaville is a graduate of Yale University and the Columbia University School of Law.

Both Litchford and Rounsaville are Board Certified in Antitrust and Trade Regulation.

"This recognition of Hal and Keith as Super Lawyers in Florida is demonstrative of our strength and accomplishments as a firm," says Don Christopher, Litchford & Christopher's President and the other founding shareholder with Litchford. "We have many talented individuals and a competent legal staff that help us serve our clients to the best of our ability everyday."

The selections for Super Lawyers are made by Law & Politics, a division of Key Professional Media, Inc. Each year, Law & Politics undertakes a rigorous multi-phase selection process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, independent evaluation of candidates by the Law & Politics' attorney-led research staff, a peer review of candidates by practice area, and a good-standing and disciplinary check. Only the top five percent of attorneys in Florida are awarded this honor. www.superlawyers.com
